

GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR BOOKINGS

GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR BOOKINGS:

1. Bookings are personal and non-transferable and they are considered valid once you have received the confirmation from the campsite. The day of your arrival, at the front desk, you will have to show the identity document (current and original) of all the people who will stay at the campsite.
2. We are a family friendly camping, so for coming as a group, you must have the express permission from the reception. Guests who do not travel as a family need to indicate it in their booking request, otherwise the bookings department can declare the reservation invalid and can also refuse the access to the premises.
3. The deposit required and the terms of cancellation can vary depending on the season and the number of previous visits. In the pre-booking, that it is not binding for the client or the reservation is indicated in detail.
4. By paying the deposit of the pre-reservation, the guest accepts the booking conditions and the general conditions as well as the campsite's rules and regulations, both available on our website.
5. If the guest wants to modify his reservation (with a writing request), the campsite, subject to availability, will try to deal with this request. Only the changes that the campsite has confirmed by writing will have validity.
6. It is not possible to book an specific number of accommodation, neither two or more accommodations together or by side. On your arrival we will indicate you your accommodation. Obviously, if you have any preferences or requests, you can communicate it by writing to the reservations Department, and we will consider your requests. We can not guarantee or confirm any request, but do not doubt that we will try to please you as much as possible. Only on the day of your arrival you will be informed about your location. Changes will not be accepted on the day of arrival. The reservation only ensures that you will have a place in case of the campsite is full.
7. The campsite cannot guarantee shadow on the plot, even if these places are located in an area with trees and the customer explicitly asks for it. Neither can guarantee a ground with grass or separation by hedges. The sizes of the different types of plots are a mere average estimation and they are not binding.
8. The accommodation occupancy mustn't exceed, in any case, the number of occupants provided for the type of accommodation booked. A baby or a child counts as a whole person.

9. Persons not staying at the campsite will not be allowed to enter. Under exceptional circumstances, campers may obtain permission to bring family members and/or friends onto the premises for limited period of time, depositing the required identification documents and paying the visitor's fee.

Visitors shall be responsible for obeying these regulations. For each visitor that not has been registered at the main reception, will be billed to the family visited.

10. It is admitted one vehicle for accommodation included in the price. All supplementary vehicles must be registered the according to tariff has been paid. It has to be parked in the inside parking.
11. The cancellations and/or modifications must be reported in writing by fax + 34 972 816 662 or email:info@valldaro.com . The booking Department have to confirm the change by email so that the change is effective. In the email you must indicate the reason for the cancellation and the IBAN number of your account in order to give you back the corresponding amount according to the terms of cancellation established. There will also be a deduction of 30€ as a cancellation fee. You can also save the full amount for a booking for another period or for the following season.
12. Camping Valldaro edits the contents of the website with the highest diligence possible, but it might be the case that, for reasons beyond the company, any type or any data or information could not updated in time to be consulted by the user. For this reason, the campsite, states that the references (images and descriptions) of products and services as well as the prices and stipulated conditions are a mere indicative function and are not binding until the request confirmation. If any user had made the hiring decision based on erroneous information published on the website, the campsite Valldaro will inform him and he will have the possibility to cancel the contract without any cost.
